It then provides instructions for the exam duration and timing, stating that the exam starts when the "Iniciar" button is clicked and ends automatically after 3 hours. It also specifies that there is one correct answer per question, no revision is available, and results are communicated via email or chat. A note for Internet Explorer users is present, instructing them to add the website to their compatibility view settings. At the bottom right of the main content area is a "Iniciar >>" button. The footer contains copyright information: "Derechos reservados SigmaPro Inc.", "Desarrollado por Siinfod Consultores en TI", and a "Dejar un Mensaje" button featuring a small profile picture of a person wearing a headset.
